WHISKI bar on Edinburgh's Royal Mile has been awarded the highest level of GOLD status for the second year running in the 2010 Whisky Magazine's – Great Whisky Bars of the World, part of the Icons of Whisky series of awards.

WHISKI bar on Edinburgh's Royal Mile has been awarded the highest level of GOLD status for the second year running in the 2010 Whisky Magazine's – Great Whisky Bars of the World, part of the Icons of Whisky series of awards.

“We are delighted to awarded the top accolade by the The Whisky Magazine again in 2010 – we work very hard in the bar to promote all things that are great about Scotland and whisky is at the heart of our offer. It is a “must read” for us here at WHISKI and this recognition of GOLD status whisky bar is just fantastic for us and the staff here at the bar” said WHISKI owner Anne Still.

What the awards had to say about WHISKI:

“Launched in 2007 to encourage everyone to try whisky, the bar focuses on Scottish malt whiskies but also has whiskies from all over the world including blends, rare editions, cask strength and vintage offerings. The bar hosts a constant stream of events and whisky tastings.”
